Ardelean & Dunne, PLLC

Record # _____

Please Read the Directions!!!!

- You MUST list everyone you owe money to no matter if bankruptcy can discharge the debt or not.
- This includes: credit cards, medical bills, personal loans, back taxes, overdue bills, child support, alimony, student loans, negligence claims, claims for intentional harm, claims for theft or fraud, overpayment of benefits, parking tickets, traffic tickets, debts to family members, or any other claims.
- You must include all leases currently active – lease on vehicles, real estate, or personal property.
- You must list everyone that is a co-debtor (they co-signed for you or you co-signed for them).
- You must tell us if a loan is secured by property. Is any personal or real property collateral on a loan?
Collateral = the Creditor would have the right to take this property if you default on the loan (auto loans, mortgages). Typically, store financing by electronic stores, jewelry stores, and furniture stores take a security interest.
- If married and filing jointly, you must tell us whose debt it is. Check either: Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community.
